

Dinner at Lincoln's Table

Enjoy a meal that would have been served at Lincoln's table. Guest will be engaged as they read aloud their souvenir name card, making connections across the table with the many that dined with Lincoln and Mary Todd through the years.

Our menu selections are from "Lincoln's Table Cookbook", Victorian recipes from Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois to the White house, by Donna McCreary, and other Civil War era recipes.

- Cider
- Victorian Ambrosia Salad – fresh pineapple, orange and coconut
- Tomato Bisque Soup
- Beef Brisket
- Delmonico Potatoes

Delmonico's Restaurant was a favorite dining haunt of the President when he was in New York City. During one visit Lincoln told the owner, Lorenzo Delmonico, "In my city of Washington there are many mansions, but alas we have no cooks like yours."

- Succotash
- Corn Bread
- Molasses Pecan Pie
- Mary Todd's White Cake

Group dining is $21.95 (inclusive) per person and requires a minimum of 20 people.
